++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry with some warm or very warm sunshine.

Today:
Rather cloudy across the far north and west at first but generally bright with some good spells of warm or, especially in the east, very warm sunshine. Cloud is expected to increase across the Outer Hebrides later. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Tonight:
Some late sunshine towards Inverness and the Great Glen but cloudier conditions in the west spreading east overnight. A few spots of rain or drizzle likely over western hills. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Friday:
Rather cloudy across the northwest with patchy light rain or drizzle. Elsewhere largely dry with, after a cloudy start, some warm sunny spells developing. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Some sunny spells towards the Great Glen Saturday but generally the weekend looks mostly cloudy with outbreaks of rain and fresh westerly winds. Becoming brighter Monday with a northerly breeze.
